Feminine Army Still Hunts Hoff-

Through Appeal to Press.

Regiments of beautiful widows, ambitious women, young women who seek higher education, higher wages, good clothes, and other luxuries that can be procured with money alone, have executed a combined attack upon the person and bankroll of L. A. Hoffmann, head of the newspaper content concern at 212 Broadway, which bears his name. Despite the most determined defense, Mr. Hoffmann has been compelled to beat a hasty retreat from his hotel, place extra guards about his mail and use a bulletproof car to get to his office. The silver tray that once accompanied his correspondence. The feminine army still is operating in squads, pairs and lone scouts through the city, but up to a late hour last night had not discovered the place of concealment of the intended victim.

But the head of the Hoffmann corporation fears that this temporary success will not last. Consequently, he sent out an urgent call for help last night, dating it "somewhere in New York." Mr. Hoffmann wishes to make known the fact that he is neither a bank, building and loan association, or employment bureau, and that he is not planning to compete with the organized charities. Nor does he desire to promote beauty shops, massage parlors, or other enterprises in which girls with "beautiful voices and exceptional figures" are interested.

Publicity His Downfall.
The difficulty lies in the fact that the unhappy Mr. Hoffmann decided about a week ago, that he could spare a portion of his profits for some charitable enterprises. After due consideration, he settled upon the education of two deserving girls as the best method of carrying out this good intention. He then wrote a letter to the Board of Education, leaving the selection of the objects of his philanthropy to that body.

The real trouble came, however, when the newspapers published this decision on his part, Sunday morning. The announcement apparently did not fail to reach the eye of every mother, daughter, aunt or father who had an ambition to get something for nothing, or thereabouts.

Thousands of personal calls, many more telephone calls, bushels of letters and urgent appeals for financial aid in every other known method of communication have compelled the harassed Mr. Hoffmann to abandon his once comfortable hotel quarters and barricade himself against business callers.

Desires Old Obscurity.
In his plea for assistance from The Tribune last night, he set forth that he appreciated the thousands of blessings heaped upon him, but couldn't afford the touches that went with them. He said that he was not seeking "glady friends" that he was sorry to hear that so many young women were compelled to work in shops and factories for $8 a week, but didn't possess the remedy. Nor has he openings in his business to help the needy.

L. A. Hoffmann, incipient philanthropist, desires to return to his former obscurity, and hereby begs that he be permitted to do so.

CATHEDRAL EXERCISES MAY 8
Governor, Mayor and Bishop to See Ground Broken for Nave.
May 8 has been decided upon as the date for the services of the breaking of ground for the building of the nave of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The services will begin at 1 o'clock. Bishop David H. Greer will preside and the full choir of the cathedral will render music.

Governor Whitman and his staff, Mayor Mitchell, Justices of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, bishops of adjoining dioceses and a large number of prominent clergymen will attend the services. President Butler of Columbia University and Governor Whitman will speak.

The grounds of the cathedral will be thrown open to the public. There will be a procession from the cathedral to the spot where the formal breaking of ground is to take place.

Immediately following the services the Cathedral League will hold its annual meeting in Synod Hall, at which Bishop Greer will preside and address will be made by Dean Grosvenor and Dr. Ralph A. Cram, the architect of the nave.
